

St. Andrew's Church of England Primary School

KSI Knowledge Organiser – Term 2: RE: Why is it important to say thank you?

Glossary of key words:

Vocabulary	Definition
gratitude	Feeling thankful and appreciative for the good things we have.
Harvest	The time when fruits and vegetables are picked from the farm and people say thank you for the food.
prayer	A way of talking to God. People pray to say thank you, ask for help or show love.
Sukkot	A Jewish festival where people remember living in tents long ago and thank God for food and shelter.
Thankfulness	Feeling or showing thanks and gratitude.
Tikkun Olam	A Jewish idea that means helping to make the world a better place.

End of unit outcomes:

Substantive Knowledge Goals:

- Christians say thank you to God during Harvest Festival.
- Jewish people believe in one God who created the world and who has a special relationship with them.
- Jewish people say thank you to God during the festival of Sukkot.
- Context affects the ways in which people say thank you.

This unit's key ideas:

← Sam and his family are Christians.

This term, Sam visits New Zealand with his family to learn about how where someone is from affects how they might live their life and their beliefs.

The Jewish festival of Sukkot – During this event, people celebrate the gathering of the crops. They also remember the time in the past when Jewish people made small shelters in the wilderness after they had fled their homes.

← This is the Māori flag. The Māori are the first people of New Zealand, with their own language, stories and traditions.

